Leonora

Arnold BENNETT (1867 - 1931)

Leonora Stanway is 40 and lives a comfortable middle-class life with her unsympathetic and dull husband, John. Her three daughters are rapidly growing up and away and she regrets that her life has become dull, domesticated and meaningless. Arthur Twemlow, the son of John's former business partner, blows into Leonora's life and that of her family. Meanwhile, old Uncle Meshach has re-written his will . . . - Summary by Simon Evers
